Welcome!

Welcome to the 10th anniversary of the Homesteaders of America conference! We are beginning to work on this anniversary year's events, and I think it's going to be amazing. More than ever, we appreciate your willingness to support this event and organization. It wouldn't be the same without you.

This year we want to work with our sponsors more than ever. If you have a unique idea on how we can get your business and brand in front of our attendees and online audience more, we want to hear about it! In years past many of our sponsors have had unique ideas that truly set them apart from others.

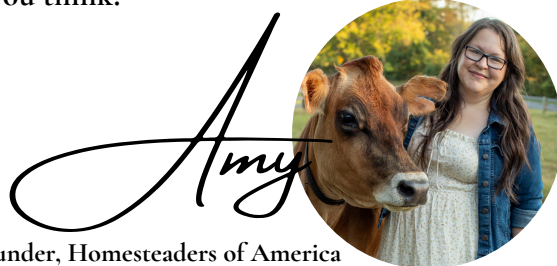

If you've never sponsored with us before, let me tell you a bit about Homesteaders of America (HOA). We are a homesteading organization run for and by homesteaders. We quite literally have our own farms and families that we tend to everyday, just like everyone else! Our goal is to create sustainable communities and families, to teach others how to efficiently live this lifestyle, and to make America agrarian once again. The times that we are living in are very obviously not getting better—but we can change that through homesteading. It's time to turn those lawns into gardens, and communities into the parallel system of wealth and wellness.

Whether you are focusing on gardening and chickens, or a product that truly pertains to the homesteader, we would love to showcase you at this event. Often times our sponsors have told us that coming to the event isn't necessarily about making sales, but more about branding themselves as "the company" in their niche for the homesteading community. But don't worry, they sell a lot at events too, and good branding means even more sales for longevity.

Our goal in sponsorship is to show our attendees and members that your company is truly valuable to their lifestyle. Because of this, we only partner with companies and businesses that align with our homesteading beliefs. We do not bring on companies or products that are "spammy" in nature, or that don't align with the family and community aspect of homesteading.

If you have any questions, we'd love to chat with you more. Take a look at the sponsorship kit and let us know what you think!

Thank you to our 2025 Premier Sponsors!

Where You'll Be Seen

Social Media

With over 237,000 followers online, we are reaching homesteaders across the globe! Your business, product, or service will be shared online on our social media, website, and more! For top tier sponsors, videos about your business will be shared on our YouTube Channel and podcast.

In Print

Your sponsorship will be featured across our 2026 printed materials—from flyers to our official conference program. You'll also be showcased in the Homesteaders of America Magazine, our 100+ page coffee-table publication released twice a year. Select tiers include premium advertising placements for even greater visibility year-round.

Our Members

Homesteaders of America has a rapidly growing online membership of individuals living and supporting the homesteading lifestyle. Sponsors and vendors have the option to offer exclusive discounts to our members—fostering connection, community, and brand loyalty. With thousands of active members nationwide, your sponsorship helps you reach even more of the vibrant homesteading community.

At Conference

We highly encourage our sponsors to also have a booth at the conference. But if that isn't an option for you, that's ok! Your logo will be seen on banners at the event, in our program, and on each screen in the speaker lecture areas. We are also open to discussions of other ways we can specifically showcase YOUR business or service at the event.

2026 Sponsorship Levels

PREMIER SPONSORSHIP— $18,000

This sponsorship includes EVERYTHING, for EVERY SINGLE HOA event. This level also includes sponsorship of ALL online events that we choose to do during the year. The special thing about this sponsorship is the EXCLUSIVITY in your business niche for both sponsors and vendors at our HOA events. You will be given options on what niche you'd like to fit into in regard to which product(s) you offer.

Truly become a patriot and PREMIER sponsor of the HOA events. Brand your business as "the" business to patronize in the homesteading community! Let our attendees know you're serious about their homestead and farm, while making a huge impact in our community!

WHAT'S INCLUDED:

- 10 weekend passes to EVERY event (Don't need them all? Do a giveaway!)
- Free access to online events
- Sponsorship across all HOA events for the calendar year (including online)
- Vendor space - 10'x20' (with table, 2 chairs, and tent -- larger spaces also available)
- Opportunity to introduce speakers at events
- One to two minute video which will be shown between speakers at events (and possibly as ads on HOA YouTube content)
- Full page OR Spread ad in program (ask for size requirements)
- Cover ad, full page, or spread in BOTH of our HOA Magazines in 2026 ***
- First opportunity to be a sponsor the following year
- Podcast sponsorship once a month on the HOA podcast (or equivalent)
- Information and logo on ALL print and online material

 For example, if you are a hatchery, then you'll have exclusiveness to the hatchery niche, but may not have exclusiveness in the "chicken products" niche. If you are a fencing company, you can choose to have exclusiveness in a particular fence (like netting), but not every kind of fence (like pole fences and insulator fences). If you are a seed company, you may have exclusiveness in seeds, but not in selling garden tools. This keeps the market fair and gets more products in front of our audience. Your niche will be what you are most well-known for. Please work with your sponsorship rep to nail down details for your sponsorship exclusiveness.*

* With a 3,700+ member print run. This magazine is mailed out with a spring/summer issue and a fall/winter issue. Availability on cover ads is first come first serve in regard to inside front, inside back, and back cover.*
